

OPRAH WINFREY NETWORK IN TOWN

The Oprah Winfrey Network visited Sorelle Gallery at 385 Broadway on Friday, June 4 to interview Mark Cellura. During a search for his birth mother Mr. Cellura learned six months ago, at the age of 50, that he had a twin. The twin was Michael Weise, a local artist who died 21 years ago of AIDS at the age of 29. Mr. Weise's artwork is on display on the walls of the gallery. The feature is scheduled to run next January.
